

Concurrence with San Diego Presbytery

Presbytery of Redstone (with Additional Rationale)

The 218th General Assembly (2008), without waiting to see the outcome of the vote of the presbyteries concerning the amendment of G-6.0106, prematurely removed interpretive documents written specifically to explain and support the current, and once again upheld, language concerning the requirements, for ordination as specified in the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

The 218th General Assembly (2008) issued a series of authoritative interpretations that may be contributing to the erosion of trust in the covenantal relationship that binds our presbyteries and congregations together in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

The actions of the 218th General Assembly (2008) mark a change in our covenant life as Presbyterians and has generated uncertainty about the nature and authority of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).
