

Three Days and Counting GA Begins This Week

June 30, 2010

Dear Friend,

This is the week when the General Assembly will convene in Minneapolis. At least one committee will begin meeting on Friday, July 2 and the Assembly will convene formally on Saturday, July 3 at 1:30 p.m.

We in the Presbyterian Coalition thank God for your partnership in bringing witness and ministry to that meeting. Some of you will be in Minneapolis as commissioners, overture advocates, testifiers in committees, speakers in renewal meetings, and tireless helpers in myriad ways.

Others of you did your work months ago in bringing overtures to your sessions and presbyteries. Whether successful in reaching General Assembly or not, each was an opportunity for witness and proclamation in your congregation and in your presbytery. And we thank God for your faithfulness.

Many of those good overtures were successful. They are now business before this General Assembly. The overtures bring your witness and proclamation with them to the meeting and are essential elements in this Assembly's opportunity to act in ways that are biblically faithful and that please the Savior. Again, we thank God for your faithfulness.

Over these months you have been praying. You have been sending financial support. Your support is enabling the work of the Coalition team at the General Assembly. We will be visible in our exhibit booth, our breakfast event, and in providing resources on the issues. We will be working tirelessly with commissioners and overture advocates. We will be working for the outcomes that you are praying for.

We understand that you may follow the General Assembly by live streaming through a link on this page.

Whether you are actively involved at the General Assembly or now watching from home, please continue to pray for God's mercy. I encourage you to use the prayer guide we sent several weeks ago.

Pray that God will find us faithful.

Yours in Christ,
